SASAKWA FFA STAG DINNER

IN LOVING MEMORY

Bertha "Doll" Warrior

Ruth Porter

A beautiful rose
Darkened by the hands of time
Only to fade away
And be erased from our mind.

Blown out like a candle,
Life can leave us so fast.
Each moment we thought would stay,
Each moment we thought would last.

The suddenness of death
Brings to mind an eerie touch.
It takes away those close,
Those we love so much.

The precious memories we have
Close to our heart will stay
Your loss to us all
Is greater than words can say.

We can only remember
Your bright lively face
And remember the specialness
You left in it's place.

Mrs. Allen: What can I say about the 1988 Senior Class? They are each a unique person. Each is determined to succeed. It's been a pleasure to work with them.

Mr. Stevens: The Senior Class has been a very cooperative and hard working group. They have many different ideas and personalities but they can always be counted on when needed. They have been a pleasure to sponsor.

Mr. Gray: As you graduate from high school, seniors, take with you my wishes that you may always meet the challenges of the future as you have those of the past 12 years.
